VOTING RIGHTS DIES IN THE SENATE

On June 22, Senate Republicans executed a filibuster to stop debate on election reform. H.R. 1, the For the People Act, is a measure that addresses voter access, election integrity, and campaign finance. Fourteen states have passed laws since the 2020 presidential election restricting voter access. The Senate voted to a 50-50 tie on a party line vote allowing the minority to stop the debate and for all intents and purposes "kill" the bill.

Vice President Kamala Harris who presided over the vote in the Senate said, "The right to vote is fundamental. It gives Americans a voice in what happens in our nation—whether that is in our economy or our national security, our education system or our healthcare system. When more people have a voice, our democracy becomes more representative, and our nation becomes stronger."

Although this version of H.R. 1 is dead, Senate Majority Leader Chuck Schumer (D-NY) said this is not the end of the voting rights debate in this session of Congress. Democrats can go back and re-draft a new version and introduce a slimmed down version of H.R. 1 that takes into account the compromises Senator Joe Manchin (D-WV) worked on which included voter ID requirements.

Democrats can also pursue The John Lewis Voting Rights Reauthorization Act (VRA) (H.R. 4), which would restore the VRA's preclearance provision that was left inoperable by a 2013 U.S. Supreme Court decision. The preclearance provision as originally written in 1965 required certain states to notify the voting rights section of the Department of Justice (DOJ) of any changes that state legislatures or local municipalities were making in reference to access to voting. DOJ would preclear these changes to ensure non-discrimination.

However, in 2013, the formula for determining which jurisdictions were subject to preclearance was found to be unconstitutional because it was out of date. Since the Supreme Court's decision, a number of states have passed restrictive voter suppression laws targeting certain populations making it harder for them to vote.

PVA will continue to follow this issue to ensure that the rights of people with disabilities in accessing the vote are strengthened and protected.

HOUSE APPROPRIATIONS SUBCOMMITTEE APPROVES VA SPENDING BILL

On June 25, the House Appropriations Subcommittee on Military Construction, Veterans Affairs, and Related Agencies Appropriations approved on a voice vote the fiscal year 2022 VA funding bill. The bill provides a total of $113.1 billion in discretionary appropriations for VA, an increase of $8.7 billion above the 2021 enacted level and $176.4 million above the President's budget request. More information about the bill's VA provisions are available here. The full committee will hold a markup of the bill on June 30 at 1:00 pm ET. To view the markup, click here.

PACT ACT CLEARS HVAC

A comprehensive bill to address military-related toxic exposures was recently approved by the House Veterans' Affairs Committee (HVAC). H.R. 3967, the Honoring our Promise to Address Comprehensive Toxics Act of 2021 or the Honoring our PACT Act was passed on a party line vote during a full Committee markup on June 24. The main sticking points of the bill are the cost and VA's capacity to implement the legislation. The version of the bill approved by the Committee will:

- Provide healthcare for potentially as many as 3.5 million veterans exposed to airborne hazards and burn pits;
- Streamline VA's review process;
- Concede exposure to airborne hazards and burn pits;
- Require medical exams and opinions for veterans with toxic exposure disability claims;
- Establish a presumption of service connection for 23 respiratory illnesses and cancers related to burn pits and airborne hazards exposure;
- Create a presumption of exposure to radiation;
- Expand Agent Orange exposure & add hypertension and MGUS to the list of presumptions;
- Require VA provide standardized training and conduct outreach; and
- Improve data collection between VA and the Department of Defense and commission studies.

Now, it awaits consideration by the House as a whole.

Larson (D-CT) and Committee Member Vern Buchanan (R-FL) and Senate Finance Committee Chairman Ron Wyden (D-OR) and Senator Bill Cassidy (R-LA) to call on the Social Security Administration (SSA) to mail annual earnings and benefits statements to eligible workers. The Know Your Social Security Act, H.R. 4143, seeks to restore SSA's policy of providing Americans with critical information about the benefits they have earned through their payroll premiums.
